

Kim
NGUYEN
FOR SUPERVISOR

One of us.
For all of us.

Meet Kim

The daughter of an immigrant and a refugee, Kim Nguyen's story is the quintessential California tale of sacrifice, hard work, and dedication to community. As one of eight children raised by her Mexican mother and Vietnamese father, Kim learned early on to fight for her accomplishments. She was the first in her family to graduate high school and college. And at just 25, she won a seat on the Garden Grove City Council, becoming both the first Latina and youngest person ever elected in the city. In 2020, Kim was overwhelmingly re-elected with more than 70% of the vote.

As a Councilmember, Kim has been a fierce advocate for our neighborhoods—championing new economic development, infrastructure projects, and park rehabilitation in East Garden Grove. With a focus on public safety, she helped implement a new community policing plan to reduce response times. Kim is a leader on women's issues, standing up to harassment and seeking equality and justice for women throughout Orange County. She has fought to ensure that immigrants in Garden Grove, like her mother, have the dignity and opportunity to thrive in our community.

A lifelong resident of District 2, Kim attended Clinton-Medenhall Elementary, Doig Intermediate, and Santiago High School. She will bring a much-needed public health background to the county, having formerly worked for CalOptima and now as a Senior Health Care Analyst for a large health plan.

Why I'm Running

“ We need a bold voice that understands the issues facing Orange County’s working families. I know the struggle of juggling multiple jobs to make ends meet while attending school and the frustrations of high rent and skyrocketing housing costs. As a lifelong resident of District 2, I’ve watched as the County failed to address our housing crisis, leaving many, especially in my generation, priced out of a home. Meanwhile, the County turned a blind eye to homelessness, creating a public health and safety emergency. People are frustrated, and rightfully so. It’s time for change.”

As your Supervisor I will fight everyday to:

- ★ Expand COVID-19 relief and work with our state and federal officials and community groups to increase testing, vaccines and boosters, while ensuring the county supports scientifically proven protections and public health measures
- ★ Address Orange County’s housing and homelessness crisis and ensure South Orange County does their fair share to house our most vulnerable residents
- ★ Work with public safety departments to focus on better community policing practices to keep us safe
- ★ Ensure our Fire and Search and Rescue personnel have all the resources they need to respond to increasing wildfires and other climate disasters in Orange County
- ★ Work with local leaders to address our exploding substance abuse epidemic while partnering with our community, non-profits, and public health leaders to help prioritize the treatment of mental illness

I’ve never shied away from a fight. I believe tough problems can be solved with hard work—it’s what I’ve done as a Councilwoman, it’s what I do everyday as a health care analyst, and it’s what I will continue to do as your Supervisor.”

How We Can Win

Voter Registration: Orange County, District 2

DEM: 48.1%

REP: 22.5%

NPP: 29.3%

18-35: 41.6%

The overwhelming Democratic registration of District 2 makes it one of the most competitive open seats in all of California. Kim is uniquely positioned to tap into the plurality of voters under 35. Her platform champions issues important to this voting bloc, including high rent, skyrocketing housing costs, frustration over COVID-19 guidelines, far-right extremism on the current board, and an overall need for change. In addition, Kim's mixed-race immigrant roots and personal story allow her to connect and understand the challenges in this diverse district. Kim Nguyen has the work ethic, platform, and community connection to win a coalition of voters on Election Day.
