There is a clear path to victory in this race. Redistricting has made SD 6 more competitive for Democrats. More households in SD 6 contain one or more Democratic voters than households that contain one or more Republican voters. I will target Democrats in SD 6 as both voters and as potential organizers for our campaign, making sure the people of SD 6, especially independent women and families, hear about my common sense ideas to drive California forward and join with us to bring this campaign across the finish line.
